Room: Aula 1–2, Hospedería Fonseca

Title:

Mi CASA es su CASA: Culture, Community-Building, and Creativity

Abstract:

Join three Spanish-American educators as they showcase the power of storytelling, active learning, and deep listening in their approaches to teaching and building culture in the workplace through creativity and the formation of CASA, a student-led Hispanic/Latino affinity group. Discover how CASA not only affirms cultural identity but also collaborates with other affinity groups, fostering community-building experiences. Explore how CASA extends diversity learning beyond the classroom, creating an inclusive workplace where cultural exploration thrives.
