

The Voces Nuevas Program

The Hispanic Association of Colleges and Universities (HACU) Voces Nuevas (New Voices) is a competitive program where students from HACU-member institutions across the U.S. and Puerto Rico apply to receive leadership, advocacy and career development training.

This is an 8-month program where 50 students from HACU's network will have the unique opportunity to develop their leadership and advocacy skills and serve as ambassadors promoting HACU programs. Selected students will participate in leadership and career development opportunities throughout the duration of the program.

Additionally, selected Voces Nuevas participants will have the opportunity to apply to receive sponsorships to attend the ¡Adelante! Leadership Institute and National Capitol Forum on Higher Education.

Applicants must be committed to:

- Coordinate and execute a minimum of two HACU information sessions. Presentation slides for information sessions will be provided by HACU staff
- Participate in all career development sessions throughout the program
- Complete the Leadership and Career Development modules in Talent LMS

Eligibility:

- Minimum 3.0 GPA
- Currently enrolled in an undergraduate degree program and enrolled at a college or university in the fall 2025
- Must be eligible to work in the U.S.
- Must be willing to be sponsored by a corporate, federal, or nonprofit sponsor
- Have not received a HACU Conference Sponsorship for the Annual Conference or Capitol Forum in previous years

Voces Nuevas Program

Open: April 28, 2025 Closes: June 20, 2025

A select group of students will receive a sponsorship to attend the HACU ¡Adelante! Leadership Institute. The cost of registration includes breakfast and lunch on Saturday, Sunday and Monday. Travel and lodging is also included for non-local students only.

For additional information, contact (210) 576-3205 or melissa.morales@hacu.net.
For eligibility and to apply, visit <https://hacu.net/programs/voces-nuevas>

