

AIRPORT TRANSPORTATION TO GAYLORD PACIFIC

San Diego International Airport (SAN) → Gaylord Pacific Resort & Convention Center

FREE SAN DIEGO FLYER → OLD TOWN → BLUE LINE SOUTH → H STREET → FREE BAYFRONT SHUTTLE

ARRIVING AT SAN: STEP-BY-STEP

1 Find the San Diego Flyer

At Terminal 1 or Terminal 2, go to the terminal transportation island and look for the orange “Flyer” shuttle with the SAN logo. The shuttle is FREE, ADA accessible, and has luggage racks.

2 Ride FREE to Old Town Transit Center

Take the San Diego Flyer to Old Town Transit Center. Current airport hours: daily, 4:50 a.m.–12:20 a.m.; typical frequency is about every 20–30 minutes.

3 Board the UC San Diego Blue Line

At Old Town, follow signs for the Trolley. Take the UC San Diego Blue Line SOUTH toward San Ysidro. Do not board the northbound train toward UTC.

4 Exit at H Street Station

Stay on the Blue Line to H Street Station in Chula Vista.

5 Connect to the FREE Bayfront Shuttle

Use the Chula Vista Bayfront Shuttle Blue Line for the Gaylord/bayfront area. Current Blue Line hours: daily, 8:00 a.m.–6:00 p.m. Get off at/near Gaylord Pacific.

OTHER TRANSPORTATION OPTIONS

- Uber / Lyft: Direct from SAN to Gaylord Pacific; typically about 15–20 minutes by car. Estimated standard ride: about $27–$35 one way.
- Rideshare pickup at SAN: Terminal 1: cross the pedestrian crosswalk. Terminal 2: cross to the Transportation Plaza and use the designated rideshare lane.
- Taxi: Direct trip typically about 15–20 minutes. Estimated fare: roughly $50–$65 one way; meter, traffic and wait time can affect the total.

Rates are estimates only. Uber/Lyft pricing can change with demand, traffic, event activity and vehicle type. Check the app for the live price before requesting a ride.
